

ROBERT KENNEDY COLLEGE

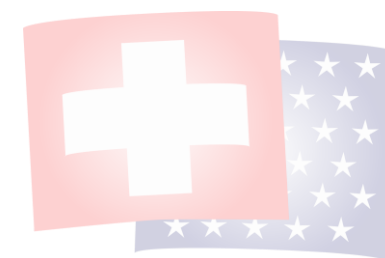

SWISS QUALITY EDUCATION & BRITISH TRADITION

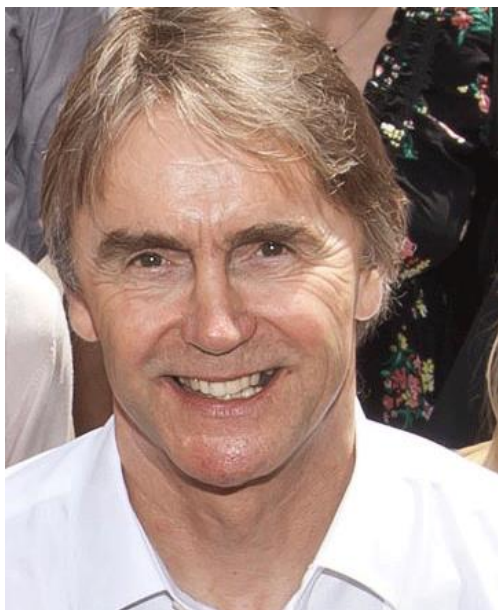

Introductions

Feb 2022

Est.
1841

YORK
ST JOHN UNIVERSITY

Given name
George

Family name
Boak

I would like to be called...

George

email: g.boak@yorks.ac.uk

Born in Britain

Now in

Harrogate, Yorkshire, England (about 20 miles from YSJY in York)

Doing the

I am the module director for Essence of Leadership, and a tutor on the Residency

I miss most (while travelling)

My wife and I have two cats, and I miss them most when I am away from home.

Likes

Tennis. Watching football. Travel. Going to restaurants and the theatre. Art galleries. All of these are on hold at the moment!

Also cats, reading light fiction, gardening – all things I can still do

I can say hello in this many languages: 10

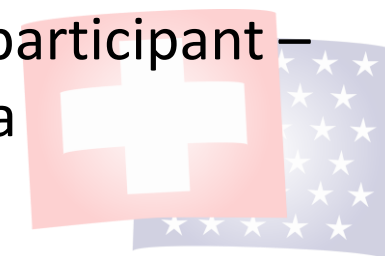

Sector I work in:
Higher Education

...and here are three examples and their story:

1. Ohayo gozemasu – Japanese – from a holiday in Japan
2. Dobra Ootra – Russian – I have worked in Russia
3. Saw ubona – Zulu – from a Residency participant – and later from a holiday in South Africa

Est.
1841

YORK
ST JOHN UNIVERSITY

Given name

Greig

Family name

Mill

I would like to be called...

Greig

email: g.mill@yorks.ac.uk

Born in

Scotland

Now in

Bradford, England

Doing the

Lecturing, York Business School

I miss most (while travelling)

Guitar, my garden, Yorkshire

Likes

Countryside walks

Playing guitar (badly)

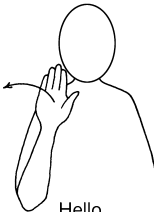

Time with family

I can say hello in this many languages: 3

Sector I work in:
Higher Education

...and here are three examples and their story:

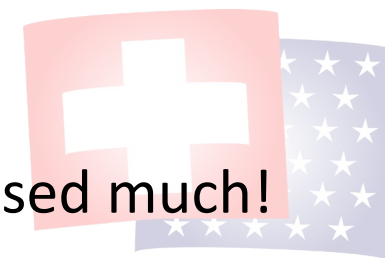

1. Halò Ciamar a tha thu (hello how are you) – Scots Gaelic

2.  Makaton – signs used by people with learning disabilities

3. Salve – Latin – learned at school, not used much!

Est.
1841

YORK
ST JOHN UNIVERSITY

Given name

David

Family name

Thompson

I would like to be called...

David

email: david.thompson@rkc.edu

Born in

London, UK

Now in

Warsaw, Poland

Doing the

Module tutor for Coaching, Organisational Culture, Strategic Consulting, and High-impact Consulting

I miss most (while travelling)

Pubs, BBC Radio 5, my home, and British sausages, pies and puddings

Likes

Grandchildren, swimming, watching football (if Tottenham win), eating out with friends, Terry Pratchett, Private Eye

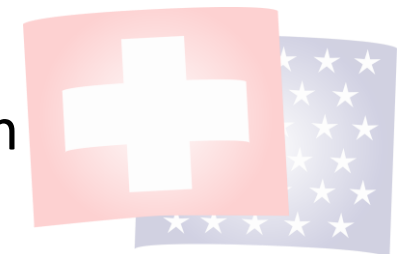

I can say hello in this many languages: More than one, less than 1000

Sector I work in:

H.E., business coaching & consulting

...and here are three examples and their story

1. Cześć – I spend 50% of my time in Poland
2. Swāṣḍī – I led an MBA programme in Thailand
3. Bonjour – My first degree is in French

Est.
1841

YORK
ST JOHN UNIVERSITY

Given name

Radu

Family name

Negoescu

I would like to be called...

Radu

email: radu.negoescu@rkc.edu

Born in

Romania

Now in

Martigny, Switzerland

Doing the

I'm a tutor in RKC and Partnership
Lead for RKC-YSJU

I miss most (while travelling)

My sport activities and zero-inbox (which both succumbed to #covid anyway)

Likes

Table tennis, photography, swimming, cycling, sleeping in (sadly hardly ever since the twins came about).

Learning about anything and everything – currently ending my days learning Arabic with duolingo.

I can say hello in this many languages: 9

Sector I work in:
Higher Education

...and here are three examples and their story:

1. Sziasztok – Hungarian – learned it during my yearly (13y and counting) table tennis practice on lake Balaton
2. Ciao – Italian – I am married to one
3. مرحبا - marhaban – Arabic – intrigued about the writing so started learning it

Est.
1841

YORK
ST JOHN
UNIVERSITY

